Galloping to Our Future...

Hello JYES families!

Wishing all our Father's or that special person in your life a Happy Father's Day this weekend! Last time I checked the weather looked great Sunday!

Volunteer Breakfast

Was wonderful to see some of our volunteers at our Thank-you Breakfast this week. Always great to connect with people without the business of the day and over food. Our volunteers play such a vital role at JYES, thank-you for all your contributions to our school and students.

Staff Appreciation Lunch

A massive thank-you to all our families who contributed to our staff appreciation lunch. I would have taken a picture of all the lovely food but it was most devoured by the time I got there. Working on report cards apparently makes you hungry, was greatly appreciated by everyone!

Last call on yearbook orders!

If you would still like to buy a John Young yearbook, this is your last chance. Please order online or return your order forms to the office by Wednesday June 19 2019. If you require a new order form, please have your child pick one up from the office.
